RENOLIT to take over Russian sales agency

Worms / Moscow, 1 December 2008 – Effective from 1 January 2009, RENOLIT AG, Worms, will take over its long-time trading partner OOO RENOLIT in Moscow. The appropriate contract has been signed on 6 October 2008. The company will henceforth trade under the name of OOO RENOLIT-Rus and is likewise located in Moscow.

Due to an ever increasing demand for plastic products in the Eastern European countries this step has become necessary. “In view of the booming construction industry modern building materials and adequate component supplier products are in great demand”, explains Michael Kundel, Chief Executive Officer of RENOLIT AG. In the states of the former Russian Federation, the company group is the market leader for high-quality plastic films and products for the sector of building materials and intends to sustainably strengthen this position.

OOO RENOLIT is a trading firm with currently 17 employees which keeps its own warehouse. The customers in the affected sales regions will not perceive the organisational changes at all, as their contact partners will remain the same.

The company

RENOLIT AG is an international leader in the manufacture of high-quality thermoplastic films and products.
