RENOLIT launches sales subsidiary in India

Worms / Gurgaon, 29th May 2008 – With effect as of 22nd May 2008, RENOLIT AG, Worms has launched a sales subsidiary in India. Under the company name RENOLIT India Private Limited, the new office is opening up the markets in India and adjoining countries in South Asia for high-grade technical plastic films and thereby bolstering the sales of RENOLIT manufactured goods.

Management of the subsidiary has been taken over by Alok Marwaha. With over 18 years of experience in sales and management in the plastic film business and in the Indian and Southeast Asian markets, the 45-year-old business economist is bringing along numerous contacts to systematically open these markets which are new for RENOLIT. Infra-structurally, the location of the Gurgaon site is favorable, as it is situated in immediate proximity to New Delhi's international airport.

The company

RENOLIT AG is an international leader in the manufacture of high-quality thermoplastic films and products. This independent family-run business, which has been setting benchmarks for quality and innovation for over 60 years, now employs a workforce of approximately 4,300 employees at its 35 production sites and sales companies. The RENOLIT brand enjoys a worldwide reputation for technical expertise, modern product design and customer-orientated service.
