New man in charge for RENOLIT DESIGN

Worms, 12 September 2008 – With effect from 1 September 2008, Karsten Jänicke (40) has taken over general responsibility as Head of the RENOLIT Group's RENOLIT *DESIGN Business Unit, which is located in Worms.

Jänicke, who has degrees in economics and social science, has been charged with the task of uniting the product brands within the RENOLIT *DESIGN Business Unit to a clearly structured and powerful consolidated furniture and interior design brand network. Within the extensive international expansion of the company in the past two years this business segment has also strongly grown. With Karsten Jänicke the vacancy at the head of the Business Unit will be filled with someone able to offer the right skills set.

Karsten Jänicke's background is in the development, production and marketing of designs. For the last seven years, he has been working for Lamigraf GmbH in Bönen and has been Managing Director at the Bönen location since 2003. Karsten Jänicke is married and is the father of two children.
